

9th USC Marshall Macro Day

September 13, 2024

University of Southern California

Fertitta Hall (JFF), room 239

610 Childs Way, Los Angeles, CA 90089

PROGRAM

9:00am – 9:30am	Coffee, registration and opening remarks
9:30am – 10:30am	Uta Bolt (University of Bristol) “Intergenerational Altruism and Transfers of Time and Money: A Lifecycle Perspective” with Jamie Hentall-Macculish, Eric French and Cormac O’Dea
10:30am – 10:45am	Coffee break
10:45am – 11:45am	Ryungha Oh (Northwestern University) “Spatial Sorting of Workers and Firms”
11:45am – 12:00pm	Coffee break
12:00pm – 1:00pm	Morgane Richard (Stanford University) “The Spatial and Distributive Implications of Working-from-Home: A General Equilibrium Model”
1:00pm – 2:00pm	Lunch (JFF-239 & Suryan Plaza)
2:00pm – 3:00pm	Garrett Anstreicher (University of Nebraska) “Family Resources and Human Capital in the Great Recession”
3:00pm – 3:15pm	Coffee break
3:15pm – 4:15pm	Angela Zheng (McMaster University) “From Preschool to College: The Impact of Education Policies over the Lifecycle” with Jacob Wright
4:15pm – 4:30pm	Coffee break
4:30pm – 5:30pm	Martín García-Vázquez (Washington University in St. Louis) “The equilibrium effects of state-mandated minimum staff-to-child ratios”
6:30pm	Conference dinner (by invitation only)